(b) if so, what is the nature of the communication?

THE HON. SRI R. SHANMUGA RAJESWARA SETHUPATHI : (a) & (b) On a representation received from the Madras State students studying in the Engineering College, Anantapur, that the scholarships and fee concessions, which they had been receiving from the composite State were stopped with effect from 1954–55, this Government took up the case with the Government of Andhra and agreed to pay the cost of scholarships and fee concessions granted to Madras State students on a reciprocal basis. These concessions were thereupon continued.
